

9:00–10:15 a.m.

Saturday Colloquium Sessions

AUDITORIUM | FREEDOM IN THE EUROPEAN AND AMERICAN CONTEXT

Guillaume de Thieulloy (Centre International de Recherche sur la Liberté Religieuse): “No Freedom for Enemies of Freedom: French Laïcité Against Religious Freedom”

Patrick Deneen (University of Notre Dame): “What American Critics of Europe and European Critics of America Get Right—and Wrong”

Mauro Magatti (Catholic University of the Sacred Heart, Milan): “The Two Individualism and the Destiny of Freedom”

Andrea Simoncini (University of Florence): “Freedom, State, and Religion in Europe: The Lesson of Luigi Sturzo”

LOWER LEVEL | FREEDOM AND DEATH

Christopher Fisher (Portsmouth Institute): “Suicide, the Myth of Emancipation, and the Freedom of Community”

John Keown (Georgetown University): “Give Me Liberty and Give Me Death: Contrasting Responses to PAS Bills in the US and the UK”

Rev. John L. Young, C.S.C. (Yale University School of Medicine): “Freedom for Facing Death”

ROOM 214 | TRUTH AND THEOLOGICAL FREEDOM

Mary Clare Imperato (Rutgers): “An Exclusivist Doctrine Confronts Liberal Pluralism: An Interpretation of the Boston Heresy Case”

Adrian Reimers (University of Notre Dame): “Freedom: Why Truth Matters”

Thomas D. Williams (Pontifical University of St. Thomas Aquinas): “Theological Freedom and the Canon of Faith”

ROOM 210-212 | SHAPING THE SELF: THE FREEDOMS AND CONSTRAINTS OF IDENTITY

Jeffrey Bishop (St. Louis University): “The Past and Future of Transhumanist Freedom”

Rev. Ezra Sullivan, O.P. (Pontifical University of St. Thomas Aquinas): “The Freedom and Limits of Self-Construction in Light of Habitus”

Aaron Urbanczyk (Aquinas College): “Don Quixote and the Limits of Freedom”

ROOM 202 | RELIGIOUS FREEDOM IN AMERICAN LIBERAL DEMOCRACY

Matthew Franck (Witherspoon Institute): “Freedom without Exceptions: A New Jurisprudence of Religious Liberty”

Melissa Moschella (Catholic University of America): “Beyond Equal Liberty: Religion as a Distinct Human Good and the Implication for Religious Freedom”

James Stoner (Louisiana State University): “Religion, Marriage, Commerce, and Law”

ROOM 200 | THE FREEDOM OF COMMITMENT: LESSONS FROM THE MONASTIC TRADITION

Sr. Maria Evangelista Fernandez, O.S.B. (Abbey of Regina Laudis): “Reimagining Freedom through the Vow of Stability: Benedictine Monasticism for the Next Generation”

Br. Bryan Kerns, O.S.A. (University of Chicago Divinity School): “Vows, Virtue, and Vitality: An Augustinian(s) Approach to Freedom”

Christina Strafaci (University of Mary-Tempe): “Desert Family, Little Monastery, School of Freedom: Re-envisioning the Identity of the Domestic Church”

ROOM 104 | EDUCATING FOR HUMAN FLOURISHING

Mary Bales (University of Notre Dame): “From Theory of Mind to Freedom in Education”

Brett Bertucio (University of Wisconsin-Madison): “A Different ‘3 R’s’: Rawls, Religion, and the Reformation Antecedents of ‘Autonomy’ in Educational Policy”

Zena Hitz (St. John’s College): “Freedom and Intellectual Life”

ROOM 112-114 | FREEDOM IN THE MARKETPLACE

Ryan Anderson (Heritage Foundation): “Religion and Religious Freedom in the Market”

Ricardo Calleja (University of Notre Dame): “The Business Firm as a ‘Concert of Liberties’: The Contribution of the Catholic Perspective on ‘Freedom for Excellence’ to Business”

Brandon Vaidyanathan (HEB Family Foundation): “Finding Escape Velocity: Catholicism and Consumer Lifestyles in Bangalore and Dubai”